Research conducted for the requirements of the assessment of the status of labour market integration of migrant mothers for the AMIF co-funded project “Mums@Work”.

1. Introduction

Thank you for agreeing to participate in this research.

Your participation will help us understand and detect the social and employment needs of migrant mothers which will inform the development of strategies and actions for recruiting migrant mothers and other stakeholders to participate in a labour market orientation programme as well as in work experience programme in Germany, Cyprus, Spain, Netherlands, Italy and France.

2. Brief description and Objectives

The aim of this research is to help the project team detect the social and employment needs of migrant mothers in Germany, Cyprus, Spain, Netherlands, Italy and France.

First, we are going to collect information about the background of the participants and then we are to explore the employment training needs of migrant mothers as well the challenges experienced in this field. Moreover, we are going to collect information about the societal aspects that affect the integration of migrant mothers in the labour market and the challenges they experience with child-care provision. Finally, we are going to collect recommendations on the type of support migrant mothers need in order to fully be integrated in the labour market.

To this end, our researchers aim to collect data through the use of various data collection tools such as interviews and focused groups which will be analysed in an overall research report which will help us achieve the aim described above.

3. Use of research the results

The results of this research will be included in an overall assessment report of the labour market needs of migrant women in the partners countries (Germany, Cyprus, Spain, Netherlands, Italy and France) and will inform the development of strategies and actions for recruiting migrant mothers and other stakeholders to participate in a labour market orientation programme as well as in work experience programme.

The results of this study will be available on public websites and might be presented in public events, however, the identity of the participants will not be disclosed.

4. Withdrawal of consent

You have the right to withdraw at any time your consent for your participation in this research by informing the data controller Mrs. Monica Adong at monica-adong@vitalaid.org
