

Information on the processing of personal data

You are participating in the research conducted for the requirements of the assessment of the status of labour market integration of migrant mothers for the AMIF co-funded project “Mums@Work.”

Data processing

Personal data will be analysed collectively without identifying personal details. Please note that, for no reason, your identification data will be provided to third parties.

You are giving consent to participate in a research that may collect some personal data through focus groups, interviews and the consent forms signed.

The data collected are anonymous and no individual participant will be identified or linked to the results. The records of this research might be further reviewed by the project partners and the European Commission. All information obtained in this research will be kept strictly confidential.

The processing may also be using recordings from the interviews and the focus groups. We would like to highlight that the recordings will be used for the collection of data and no individual will be identified or linked to the data collected.

The data will be kept by the data controller, in accordance with the principles of art. 5 EU Regulation 2016/679, for a period not exceeding the achievement of the objectives and with specific regard to the principle of limitation of conservation referred to in art. 5(c), EU Regulation 2016/679.

Information concerning the dissemination of information

The results of this research will be disseminated and presented in public events, however, the identity of the participants will not be disclosed.

Data storage and Conservation

Your data will also be stored and kept for administrative purposes to ensure the fiscal, accounting and administrative requirements required by law for up to 7 years after the end of the project (January 2023).

All materials will be stored in a secure location and access to files will be restricted to professional staff linked to this project and authorized to do so.

Parties involved in processing

Data Controller

Mrs. Monica Adong (address: Van Brakelstraat 17A, 2518 vv, The Hague, Netherlands; email: monica-adong@vitalaid.org) will process your personal data in compliance with the requirements of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (General Data Protection Regulation) and Decree 196 dated 30 June 2003 as amended (Data Protection Code).

Rights of the Data Subject

Pursuant to Law No. 138(I)/2001, as amended up to Law No. 37(I)/2003, Law No. 105(I)/2012, Law No. 125(I)/2018, you, as a participant in this study and therefore a data subject, may exercise the rights granted pursuant and consequent to arts. 5-15 of the Law, including the right to request access to your personal data and its rectification or deletion, as well as to restrict the processing of your data, object to its processing and request its portability.

Consent can be withdrawn at any time by communicating with the local coordinator. In the event of withdrawal of consent after the processing and dissemination of data, the data controller and the organization cannot be held liable for any actual or perceived damage to the data subject.

Requests to exercise the above rights may be presented to the data controller Mrs. Monica Adong at monica-adong@vitalaid.org

Should you believe that the processing of your personal data is in infringement of the provisions of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 or Law No. 138(I)/2001, as amended up to Law No. 37(I)/2003, Law No. 105(I)/2012, Law No. 125(I)/2018, you have the right to lodge a complaint with the Netherlands Information Commissioner's office (ICO)], pursuant to Article 77 of the Regulation (EU) 2016/679, or to refer to the appropriate courts (art. 79 of the Regulation).
